Udyamita is a state of mind and a process by which large scale innovation, enterprise and employment can be generated. By celebrating Udyamita Divas, our aim is to make it part of the ecosystem of each technical institution and where every technical student is aware of the possibilities of Udyamita or enterprise and large scale employment and nation building can happen through this awareness.

A program that can be conducted in your institution on 21st August for approx. 90 minutes encompassing how udyamita can be beneficial for the participants, for society and for economy; local role models as Udyamis; those who have done entrepreneurship and have benefited from it, what were the challenges, and some opportunities they had and what support they got from the various government institutions and their state of mind now that they are successful. The Udyamita Divas can be followed by other programs over the subsequent week. Please upload the photographs and posts, and press clippings of the event on your respective institution's website.
